REF:

Council Journal 22 Feb 1739 (OGS News pg. 18, pg.43); Grant 42:214. (possible son of Hans?) 1742 Bern, Switzerland - Peter Huber brought letters from American in the false bottom of a wooden drinking-cup, which he confessed when his captured baggage was examined, had been constructed by a German settler in Carolina (Hans Roth). He was a shoemaker by trade and was on his way back to Carolina, accompanied by his wife and two children whom he had come to fetch the forgoing summer. One daughter had gone with him to Carolina on his first trip, about eight years before (1734), and she had remained in Carolina. Barbara Horger was expected to go to Carolina with him. Peter Huber escaped from the hands of his judges (1742). Peter im Aebnit was less fortunate (1744). REF: Faust V.I,pg. 13, 1742 Feb 2 Hans am Acher, who emigrated to Carolina, have been sent the proceeds for the sale of his little house. This money Peter Huber will personally deliver to am Acher. Faust VII, pg.35. 1742 Oct 6 Arrived with 2 children from Holland by way of Phila, PA to SC. REF: OGS News VI, pg.10, pg.26. 1749 Signed Giessendanner petition. running out. Benjamin moved westward (SC), and there is an indication that he received land near Rocky Swamp. This would have located him in the vicinity with his brother Isaac and his sister Sarah Varnedoe. The appearance of a Henry Mill, Jr., in this same area raises the possibility that Henry Mell and Maria Catherina also moved to the Rocky Swamp Section. Benjamin received a grant in 1787 on Giddy Swamp, a few miles further west and now part of Aiken County, on the eastern outskirts of Wagener. A Benjamin who died during the Rev.War was probably his son, and a later "Benjamin Jr." his grandson.

ii Joseph Huber born Europe, married (1) 4 Sep 1753, in Orangeburgh, South Carolina, Elizabeth Hormutt, born ABT 1729, Europe, died 13 Jan 1758, Orangeburgh, South Carolina, buried 15 Jan 1758,
